Pastor's Post

A Spirituality of Stars

My spirituality has been shifting in the last couple of years. It has become seasonal. I mean this literally: it has become shaped by the seasons of the year. In the spring, I turn towards green things shooting up from the earth, looking for a flowering in my spirit. In the summer, I turn towards play and delight, showing the inner child we all have within us that grown-ups get to have fun, too. In the autumn, my spirit longs to turn gold, to let go of that which is not meant to last, to see change as a gift and not a threat. In the winter, I seek out the gifts of both warmth and cold: of coziness and rest like great slumbering animals, and also the whimsy of birds best seen on bare branches while the cold air swirls around me.

KEYS TO BIBLE CLASS

(in-person):

SUNDAY AT 11:15 AM

BIBLE STUDY (virtual):

TUESDAY AT 7:30 PM

I have started slowly collecting some companions for these seasons of spirituality, and this season – winter's – gift is from one of my favorite dreamers and poets, Jan Richardson. It is called How the Stars Get in Your Bones. It details her own journey of grief, and home, and yearning for the light. One poem in this gem of a book is what the book is named for. Some of my favorite verses are:

*I tell you, this blazing in you—it does not come by choosing the most difficult way, the most daunting;
it does not come by sheer force of your will.
It comes from the helpless place in you that, despite all, cannot help but hope,
the part of you that does not know how not to keep turning toward this world,
toward this sky,
to keep turning your heart
toward this unendurable earth, knowing your heart will break
but turning it still.
I tell you,
this is how the stars

We have stars in our bones. Scientists know this. But we also have stars in the bones of our faith, and they shine through struggle, through trusting God and each other with our own helplessness; our need. In our helplessness, we find space for hope. And hope is, as Jan Richardson reminds us, the stuff of stars. The stuff of God. The stuff of us.

I cannot predict what shape your spirituality will take in this coming year. But this I do know: there will be stars. Yes, we will give star words in worship January 4 for Epiphany. That star may be a guide to your spirit. And also: everywhere we practice vulnerability with each other, turning toward one another and God, another star will be born in our spirits, and in this place called Emmanuel. Let's shine.

Peace,
Pastor Whitney

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION NEWS

Book Mavens – Sixth Years of Exploring Books in Community

Emmanuel's Youth and Adult Book Club, the Book Mavens, is in its sixth year, as they organized to meet online during the pandemic in 2020! The group reads and discusses a different book each month, choosing from two choices provided by the month's leader that are appropriate for the ages of youth involved. Check out their 2025 Book Recap display in Emmanuel's narthex or online via the summary in the weekly email.

Book Mavens welcome both monthly visitors and longer-term participants. For January 2026, they are reading the middle-grade book It Ain't So Awful, Falafel by Firoozeh Dumas, led by Caroline Loy. For more information or to participate, contact Leah Wyckoff.

Group Gatherings Schedule for January

Emmanuel group gatherings take place both in-person and online. Online meeting links are included each week in the Emmanuel Weekly Email and are also available by contacting the church office (office@emmanuelpc.org). For more information on how to participate, contact the church office.

January's weekly group gathering schedule is:

Sunday's

11:15 AM:

- Keys to the Bible Class (in-person). Meets weekly in Room 4 and is studying the Book of Acts. Contact John Stocking for more information.

O Lord, let my New Year's resolution be to follow you
more closely and to trust in your loving guidance.

We offer three ways to submit prayer requests at this time. Please choose one.

- ♦ You may scan the QR code on the right or on the church bulletin
- ♦ Write your prayers on the slips of paper provided in church service
- ♦ Send via email to prayer@emmanuelpc.org.

Be sure to designate in the email/form if the request is for the pastors only or if it can also be shared with the congregation. All prayers received by Sunday evening will be included in the weekly prayer list. Prayers may be edited for clarity and brevity, but the essence will still be there.

**Prayer requests received through texts are not recommended. ****

Thank you for sharing prayer concerns and participating in the congregation's prayer life!

HOSPITALITY SUNDAYS

Do you have gifts for hospitality and welcoming people? Emmanuel's Deacons are looking for volunteers to host refreshments after worship on a Summer Sunday. Host by yourself or partner with a friend or family member, whatever works for you. Sunday Hospitality hosting involves about 20 minutes of setup before worship, then serving food after worship and cleaning up. We have some treats on-hand in the fellowship hall freezer and funds are available to reimburse you for food purchased.

To sign up, contact Helen S. or write your name on the Sunday Hospitality schedule in the narthex. Thank you for considering it!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

NURSERY VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED

The Christian Education is asking for people to volunteer occasionally in the Nursery on Sundays. Our Child Protection Policy requires no less than 2 adults in the nursery with the children. This does not have to be on a regular basis but will give most of you a chance to enjoy being with the children.

There is a sign up sheet in the Narthex and the CE committee would appreciate the extra help. What a wonderful way to use your talents at Emmanuel!

AUDIO VISUAL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Would you like to help with the sound system and video streaming in worship? If so, please contact Ken R. to participate in a training session.

SUNDAY OFFERING COUNTERS NEEDED!

For Sunday Offering Counters, sign up at Sign Up Genius. One of the counters should be an ELDER and the other person a Volunteer. Thank you for volunteering!!
